

PLANNING FOR SCHOOL CLOSURES?

Please add these free resources to your learning plans, and share on your website and with your school community.

We've Got You Covered.

Regardless of your virtual education initiatives, preparing instructional content for multiple weeks away from school can be daunting. As your partners in learning, we have a variety of resources both free and for purchase that can help you during this challenging time.

Free Resources While School Is in Session

Scholastic Classroom Magazines Teaching the Coronavirus website

Ensure that your students have all the facts about the coronavirus. The Scholastic Magazine editors have created a collection of free resources to help ease students' fears and inform them with age-appropriate information.

scholastic.com/coronavirus

Free Resources for Your School Closure

Scholastic Learn at Home website

Scholastic Learn at Home is a free website that provides students with 20* days' worth of exciting learning journeys carefully created by our editors to span the content areas and keep your students actively engaged and challenged.

scholastic.com/learnathome

*The site will be updated weekly until all 20 days of content is available

To learn more, to schedule a virtual meeting, or to begin offering these resources to your students and their families immediately, please contact:

Scholastic Education offers a number of additional resources to support at-home reading and learning opportunities.

Available in English and Spanish, our high-interest take-home packs enable you to send home engaging books and activities to keep students in Grades PreK–12 reading while they're out of school.

Scholastic Literacy Pro is an independent reading solution that provides your K–6 students with access to more than 2,300 authentic ebooks and thousands of comprehension quizzes.

Scholastic F.I.R.S.T. is an adaptive reading program that provides foundational reading skill development paired with phonemic awareness and phonological activities for students in Grades PreK–2.

Scholastic W.O.R.D. is a personalized vocabulary program designed to deepen comprehension by teaching K–5 students the 2,500 word families that make up the majority of words they will encounter in school.

Scholastic Classroom Magazines offer authentic texts and digital content that empowers learners in grades PreK–12.

BookFlix brings joy and knowledge to early readers in Grades PreK–3 with animated stories from Weston Woods paired with best-selling nonfiction Scholastic ebooks.

Scholastic Classroom Libraries provide students with exciting, diverse books that can be read independently to boost a lifelong love of reading for students in Grades K–12.

Available in in English and Spanish, our School Readiness Kits help children ages 3–5 build essential foundational skills to ensure kindergarten readiness.

To learn more, to schedule a virtual meeting, or to begin offering these resources to your students and their families immediately, please contact: