Every person, business, and organization has something of value that they can share with their community. The goal of the Adopt-A-School Program is to ensure students are prepared to become valuable members of a global society through the support of community partners.

The Adopt-A-School program provides a great opportunity for individuals and organizations to help achieve this goal. Together, we can accomplish the goal to benefit this and future generations.

Find a list of partner activities and an application to apply at jpschools.org/adoptaschool